

NATIONAL SCIENCE DAY

Freshmen Engineering Department of Narayana Engineering College, Nellore organized NATIONAL SCIENCE DAY on 27-2-2021 in the campus. With great enthusiasm number of I B.Tech students exhibited their science models. Many students of all branches exhibited their posters on current topics and Science topics.

Dr. A.V.S. Prasad, Director, Dr. G. Sreenivasulu Reddy, Principal and HODs of all departments visited the exhibition of science models and posters and they assessed the performance of the participants. The participants explained about their models clearly to all the visitors.

Prizes were distributed by the Director and the Principal to the winners.

The Director had encouraged all the participants by extending the cooperation and by providing training. The Principal appreciated all the winners and participants. The HOD of FED and all the faculty members were present on the science day. The rest of the students also visited the exhibition and learned many new things and developed many new ideas.

